8th Annual Strawberry Festival

Sunday, June 27, 2010

Family Fun, Rain or Shine!

Parking -$5 per car, carpooling encouraged

10-4: Ongoing horse-drawn wagon rides to and from the strawberry patch and strawberry picking. Kids' activities—arts and crafts, face painting, and mural coloring. Farm and garden educational displays and self-guided farm tours. Farmstand and Hello Café are open throughout the festival.

11: Organic “good food” concession opens—homemade strawberry shortcake and cheesecake, farm-fresh salads, grilled local sausages and CCF veggie burgers, Strafford Creamery organic ice cream.

Plus wood-fired organic veggie and fresh herb pizzas and strawberry dessert pizzas made by NOFA-VT in their copper-domed mobile oven!

11, 12:30 & 2: Tales for all ages by British Storyteller Simon Brooks of Orford, NH

1-3: Live contemporary rock music under the tent by the Wall-Stiles from the Upper Valley!

4: Festival ends
